

Name _____

Date _____

Reading Comprehension Test

Unit 3, Week 3

Directions: Read the poem. Then answer the questions about the poem.

Just Ask

Bob wanted to go biking.

He wondered who would go.

He wanted to go fly a kite.

No one seemed to know.

He wanted to do something fun,
anything at all—

go outside, run a race,

throw around a ball.

But Bob just sat and waited.

He did nothing all day through when all he had to do was ask

a friend like me or you!

GO ON

Name _____

Date _____

Reading Comprehension Test

Unit 3, Week 3

1 What is something Bob wants to do?

A run a race

B play inside

C call a friend

2 Bob spends his time —

A asking questions.

B sitting and waiting.

C throwing a ball around.

3 To do the things he wants to do, Bob needs to —

A stay home.

B ask someone.

C think of a fun place to go.

Score
_____/3

DONE!

Present of Be: Is, Am, Are

Reteach

Grammar Rules

Use am to talk about yourself: I + am

Use are to talk to another person: You + are

Use are to talk about yourself and another person: We + are

Use are to talk about other people: They + are

Use is to talk about one person or thing: He/She/It + is

I am happy.

They are at the park.

It is winter.

Circle the word that correctly completes each sentence.

1. Jen and Alex (is/are) late for school!
2. I (are/am) here with my teacher.
3. They (are/am) the last ones in line.
4. Selena (is/am) in the classroom.
5. Lan (is/am) on the bus.
6. It (are/is) time to start our work.
7. We (are/am) ready to learn!

number word

even odd

tally marks

hundreds

tens

ones

expanded form

Name _____

Friendly Letter

You can write a friendly letter to someone you know. In it, you tell something about yourself. A friendly letter has five parts.

1. Think about things to tell about yourself. Choose one idea.
2. Write a letter to your friend.
3. Use the five parts that are shown by the arrows.

MODEL: FRIENDLY LETTER

April 17, 200_ ←

→ Dear Sarah,

→ Today I had my first soccer game. I tried to kick the ball. I missed two times. Then I kicked the ball really hard. It went into the goal! We lost, but we had fun!

Your friend, ←

Kim ←

Harcourt

